DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6, 12, 15, 16 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kimmel (USPN 5,890,487).

Regarding claims 1, 6 and 12, Kimmel discloses a thermal device for applying thermal energy to the body of a person, animal or other surface, comprising: degermed corn grain (cleansed corn, see col. 2, lines 43-46); and an enclosure or receptacle (1 and analogous counterparts in other embodiments) configured to enclose said degermed corn grain, see col. 2-4 and figures 1-3.

Regarding claim 2, Kimmel further discloses the enclosure is made from fabric (4a and 4b of 1), see col. 2, lines 34-42.

Art Unit: 3739

Regarding claims 3, 4, 15 and 16, Kimmel discloses the claimed invention. The recitation of oven dried corn and/or kiln dried corn is interpreted as a method of manufacture. The determination of patentability in a product-by-process claim is based on the product itself, even though the claim may be limited and defined by the process. That is, the product in such a claim is unpatentable if it is the same as or obvious from the product of the prior art, even if the prior product was made by a different process. In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 697, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985). A product-by-process limitation adds no patentable distinction to the claim, and is unpatentable if the claimed product is the same as a product of the prior art.

Regarding claims 5 and 19, Kimmel further discloses an enclosure or receptacle that is generally rectangular, see figure 1.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6, 12, 15, 16 and 19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

This action is FINAL.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
